DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Pearlstein (US 5,691,986).

Regarding claim 1, Pearlstein discloses method editing and inserting of data into an encoded bitstream comprising the steps of:

receiving elementary stream including one or more audio, video, PSI, and ancillary streams; responsive to a program selector signal, the elementary stream selector circuit 102 output the elementary streams to a plurality of depacketizers 104 of data reduction circuits 120, 122, respectively (selecting a depacketizer based on a type of data in said datastream; providing packets of said datastream to said depacketizer) ;

re-packetizing the data into frames or packets by a plurality of repacketizers 108; and providing frames or packets to remultiplexers 110 and providing the output transport multiplex data or frame to television or other types of video or audio equipments (assembling said packets into frames) (see figure 1 and col. 1 lines 13-59; and col. 3 line 4 to col. 6 line 67).
